

Grzegorz JÓŹWIAK

Member of the Clean Hydrogen Partnership Governing Board

Grzegorz Józwiak,
Director of Hydrogen Technologies and Synthetic Fuels Department, ORLEN S.A.

Grzegorz has 20 years' experience in segment of refinery, petrochemical and fertilizers production. He has deep and broad experience in the energy, oil, gas, chemical production processes, low carbon solutions from an operational and optimization point of view. Years of successful experience in teams management with deliverables results. Responsible for the implementation of the hydrogen strategy at ORLEN Group. He has created totally new hydrogen business line with state of the art hydrogen Dream Team. He has initiated and launched the first Hydrogen Academy for students in Poland. He coordinated the processes of receiving non-repayable funding from European programs such as Connecting Europe Facility (CEF), Important Projects of Common European Interest (IPCEI). He is a member of the Coordination Board of the Sectoral Agreement for the Development of the Hydrogen Economy in Poland, member of the Program Council of the Hydrogen Technologies Center at the Gdańsk University of Technology, Civilian Expert in NATO for 'Energy Critical Infrastructure Protection. He has graduated of the Warsaw University of Technology and has completed the Executive MBA postgraduate program with distinction.